SAG boosts Actors Resource Center

Leaders and prominent members of SAG will gather Saturday to launch a drive for an Actors Resource Center to give 70,000 actors who live and work in Los Angeles a location to foster their craft. The fundraiser at the Argyle Hotel is expected to be attended by secretary-treasurer James Cromwell as well as Ernest Borgnine, Tom Bosley, David Carradine, Hector Elizondo, Elliott Gould, Marg Helgenberger, Tori Spelling and Mickey Rooney. The event is being sponsored by Integrated Wealth Management, photographer Patrick McMullen, Amy Lumet and Mike Ryan. (Staff report)
