

SCREEN ACTORS GUILD & SAGIndie FÊTE FILMMAKERS at

PALM SPRINGS International FILM FESTIVAL

SAG FOUNDATION HONORS DIRECTOR SIDNEY POLLACK WITH ITS INAUGURAL PATRON OF THE ARTS AWARD

Integrated Wealth Management hosted a "Tea in the Desert" brunch to benefit the SAG Foundation on Sunday, January 7 at the historic O'Donnell House during the Palm Springs International Film Festival. Actors Adam Beach (Flags of Our Fathers), Sienna Miller (Factory Girl) and Rinko Kikuchi (SAG Award nominee, Babel) joined the Foundation in celebrating its inaugural Patron of the Arts Awardee, director Sydney Pollack.

Brunch attendee and SAG board member Valerie Harper praised Pollack: "We have 23 on our [SAG Foundation] board and we ended up with a unanimous vote for him. He was the perfect honoree, and now, because of him, the bar has been set very high."

Later that evening, representatives from SAG and SAGIndie joined hosts (PICTURED AT TOP) director JOHN PASQUIN and his wife, SAG National Board Member JOBETH WILLIAMS, as well as Festival Director DARRYL MACDONALD, SAGIndie Director DARRIEN MICHELE GIPSON, Festival Chair Emeritus HAROLD MATZNER and SAG Hollywood Executive Director ILYANNE MORDEN KICHAVEN for a cocktail reception at the Hotel Zoso, which was attended by over 100 filmmakers.

SIENNA MILLER and SAG Foundation Executive Director MARCIA SMITH flank JAMES CASEY, President and CEO of Integrated Wealth Management during the SAG Foundation's "Tea in the Desert" brunch.

Amy Graves/WireImage.com