It's the reality

TV types are sniffing around behind-the-scenes celebrity designer Kenny Davis, who'll make his on-camera debut next month in the season premiere of "Kathy Griffin's Life on the D-List." Davis, responsible for designing the interiors for "Paris Hilton's My BFF" and Ashton Kutcher's "Beauty and the Geek," has also worked with P Diddy, 50 Cent and others -- a resume that has all the earmarks of a reality show.

Speaking of which . . . actress/Playboy pinup gal Joanna Krupa ("Dancing With the Stars") and Maria Arce ("Paul Blart: Mall Cop") are in the midst of filming their E! reality series in Manhattan, LA and Miami. "The Krupa Sisters" (Joanna's sibling twin sister Marta) follows the women (Arce is Krupa's BFF) as they live their fabulous lives, well, fabulously.

And it's good to be a TV star, or at least an actor/actress (however relatively unknown) especially this week, when the networks held their annual "upfronts" (presenting their fall schedules to advertisers). Why? Well, Think PR, which had an "Upfronts Studio" all week at The Empire Hotel -- catering to TV talent -- lured, among others, Boris Kodjoe and Jessica Parker Kennedy ("Under covers"), Olivia Munn and Christine Woods ("Perfect Couples) and Martha Plimpton and Shannon Woodward ("Keep Hope Alive") to the lounge, where they were pampered and waited-on regarding clothing, accessories, jewelry, etc. for their press appearances.

Last, but not least:

* Nora Ephron and 30 writers/actors meet their PencilPAL 5th grade class for the first time today (PS 16 in Corona, Queens) . . . Cory Monteith, Mary Salling ("Glee") at Blue Fin . . . Congrats to Andrea Canning (ABC News) and husband Tony Bancroft on the arrival of Charlotte Brewster.
