

Turn the Page!

Ever read a book on acting that changed your life? Is there a text that opened your eyes to the film industry? Want to share that with other SAG members? Well, here is your chance!

The Screen Actors Guild Foundation Actors Center offers many resources for SAG members to better prepare themselves for a career in the entertainment industry. One of these is the Actors Center Library. Located adjacent to the lounge, the library provides actors access to plays and books on acting and the film industry, allowing them to further their education and inspire them to reach their potential.

You can help make it happen with a tax-deductible donation to the Turn the Page! campaign ($500 per shelf, or $30 per book). Each shelf or book will bear a name plate or book plate commemorating your contribution. Another way of contributing is by gifting copies from your own collection you no longer need.

For more information, visit the Foundation website at www.sagfoundation.org or call us at (323) 549-6708.
